A Brief History Of Orgone

Dr. Wilhelm Reich, A Man Before His Time...

From The “Orgone Accumulation Handbook”, By Dr. James DeMeo, Ph.D.
Pages 11, 12.

“Orgone energy is cosmic life energy, the fundamental creative force long known to people in touch with nature, and speculated about by natural scientists, but now physically objectified and demonstrated. The orgone was discovered by Dr. Wilhelm Reich, who identified many of its basic properties. For instance, the orgone energy charges and radiates from all living and non-living substance. It also can readily penetrate all forms of matter, though with varying rates of speed. All materials affect the orgone energy, by attracting and absorbing it, or by repelling or reflecting it. The orgone can be seen, felt, measured and photographed. It is a real, physical energy, and not just some metaphorical, hypothetical force.

The orgone also exists in a free form in the atmosphere, and in the vacuum of space. It is excitable, compressible, and spontaneously pulse, capable of expanding and contracting. The orgone charge within a given environment, or within a given substance, will vary over time, usually in a cyclical manner. The orgone is most strongly attracted to living things, to water, and to itself. Orgone energy can lawfully stream or flow from one location to another in the atmosphere, but it generally maintains a west to east flow, moving with, but slightly faster than the rotation of the Earth. It is a ubiquitous medium, a cosmic ocean of dynamic, moving energy, which interconnects the whole physical universe; all living creatures, weather systems, and planets, respond to its pulsations, and movements.

The orgone is related to, but quite different from other forms of energy. It can, for instance, impart a magnetic charge to ferromagnetic conductors, but it is not magnetic itself. It can likewise impart an electrostatic charge to insulators, but neither is it fully electrostatic in nature. It reacts with great disturbance to the presence of radioactive materials, or to harsh electromagnetism, much in the manner of irritated protoplasm. It can be registered on specially adapted Geiger counters. The orgone also is the medium through which electromagnetic disturbances are transmitted, much in the manner of the older concept of ether...

In the living world, orgone energy functions underlie major life processes; pulsation, streaming, and charge of the biological orgone determines the movements, actions, and behavior of protoplasm and tissues, as well as the strength of “bioelectrical” phenomena. Emotion is the ebb and flow, -

- the charge and discharge of the orgone within the membrane of an organism, just as weather is the ebb and flow, the change, and discharge of the orgone in the atmosphere. Both organism and weather respond to the prevailing character and state of the life energy. Orgone energy functions appear across the whole of creation, in microbes, animals, storm clouds, hurricanes, and galaxies. Orgone energy not only charges and animates the natural world; we are immersed in a sea of it, much as a fish is immersed in water. More, it is the medium which communicates emotion and perception, through which we are connected to the cosmos, and made kin to all that is living.”

Orgone Energy & Wilhelm Reich (1897-1957)

Statements From The Medical Profession In 1949:

“We consider the discovery of the orgone energy among the greatest events in human history.” From a letter to the American Medical Association, signed by 17 medical doctors in 1949.

“...unlike Sir Isaac Newton, Reich was not willing to stand upon the shoulders of giants. He stood only as high as his own experiences would allow, and from this low perch imagined himself to be a lone eagle soaring higher than any other man had ever reached.” -- Roger M. Wilcox.

In 1940, Wilhelm Reich constructed the first device to accumulate orgone [life force] energy: a six-sided box constructed of alternating layers of organic materials (to attract the energy) and metallic materials (to radiate the energy toward the center of the box). Patients would sit inside the accumulator and absorb orgone energy through their skin and lungs. The accumulator had a healthy effect on blood and body tissue by improving the flow of life-energy and by releasing energy-blocks.

Orgone energy is an alleged type of "Primordial Cosmic Energy" discovered by Freudian psychoanalyst Wilhelm Reich in the late 1930s. Reich claimed that orgone energy is omnipresent and accounts for such things as the color of the sky, gravity, galaxies, the failure of most political revolutions, and a good orgasm. In living beings, orgone is called bio-energy or Life Energy. Reich believed that orgone energy is "demonstrable visually, thermically, electroscopically and by means of Geiger-Mueller counters."* However, only true believers in orgone energy (i.e., orgonomists practicing the science of orgonomy) have been able to find success with the demonstrations.

Reich claimed to have created a new science (orgonomy) and to have discovered other entities, such as bions, which to this day only orgonomists can detect. Bions are alleged vesicles of orgone energy which are neither living nor non-living, but transitional beings.

Reich died on November 3, 1957, in the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, where he was sent for criminal contempt. The criminal charge was levied because Reich refused to obey an injunction against selling quack medical devices such as the Orgone Accumulator and orgone "shooters," devices which allegedly could collect and distribute orgone energy.

Despite having no status in the scientific community, Reich's ideas have been passed on by a number of devoted followers led by Elsworth F. Baker, M.D., founder of the American College of Orgonomy, and Dr. James DeMeo of The Orgone Biophysical Research Laboratory, Inc., located in Ashland, Oregon. Baker's successors (he died in 1985) and DeMeo continue to defend both Reich the scientist and orgonomy. Reich saw himself as a persecuted genius and considered the critics who ridiculed him to be ignorant fools.

Life Force Technology After Reich

By Karl Welz

The word "orgone energy" for life force is inseparably connected with the work of Wilhelm Reich, whose scientific work with life force made him one of the most outstanding pioneers of a new technology.

Since Wilhelm Reich, several new developments happened that some of the more "traditional" orgone establishments try to ignore. On the other hand, there have been much older scientific developments as well as "esoteric" traditions that used orgone energy.

In fact, some of the followers of ancient traditions made use of life force thousands of years before the word "orgone" was coined by Wilhelm Reich to describe life force and its effects. Moreover, these practitioners used life force on a daily basis in ways of which the more modern scientific pioneers had not the slightest idea they existed!

As a result of our experimentation and research we found:

(1) Orgone transfers at any distance via structural links. [Symbols, Sigils, Photos, & or orgonite discs].

(2) Orgone has been used by shamans, magicians, priests, etc., for millennia, perhaps for as long as humans are roaming this planet, most likely even longer. They knew all along that orgone energy (life force) can be projected at any distance and, furthermore, that it can be used to generate specific trends.

(3) Points (1) and (2) are at the root of the technology of radionics, sometimes also called "psionics". We did demonstrate experimentally that structural connections can be established to objects, persons, and to expressions of intent that we may label "trend energy". It remains irrelevant in this context, whether we view the leaning towards specific actions, or trends, as expressions of an assumed collective unconscious and conscious factors, or as assumed energy fields. In fact, the specific explanatory mappings that we may establish for ourselves as far as the leaning towards specific actions, potential events, or trends are concerned, seem presently irrelevant in the context of orgone boosted radionics technology. Fact is that the use of orgone devices and orgone technology go far beyond the energizing of living organisms.

(4) Orgone can be generated with the new Welz Chi Generators (orgone generators).

(5) Transfer at any distance with the help of structural links (see the test above) allowed us to send signals across the Atlantic from machine to machine, using orgone energy only. As expected, no amplifiers were needed for the process.

(6) Orgone energy can be directed by the human brain, which itself is an ideal tool to establish structural links. The disadvantage of this powerful tool, our brain, is the fact that images (abstractions that serve as structural links) are fleeting. Radionics or psionic devices, mnemonic techniques and other methods can be used to "freeze" such structural links in order to secure a continuous transfer of energy to an envisioned target.

The natural characteristic of the human brain to establish structural links is the basis for most of the "paranormal" phenomena that we experience. In fact, these phenomena appear to be something totally natural, or "normal", occurrences and human capabilities rather than "paranormal" or "mystical", when examined in the light of structural linkage and life energy physics!

(7) We developed a new life force (orgone) accumulating material, Orgonite™, that is far superior to the traditional layering of steel wool and fiberglass.

(8) Pulsed orgone from the orgone generator transforms DOR (deadly Orgone) and oranur back into healthy orgone. This became unequivocally clear in massive experiments that we conducted with DOR generators. Here we have to do with a process that happens also naturally because of natural orgone pulses that are the result of the movement of large orgone fields of regional, planetary, even cosmic, proportions: if it was not this way, our planet would have choked in DOR long ago.

This shows that the Welz Chi Generator is not only stronger than an orgone accumulator due to the fact that it generates orgone rather than merely accumulating it, it is also qualitatively far superior to the, now hopelessly obsolete, orgone energy accumulators, orgone energy shooters, orgone energy blankets, layered orgone energy wands, etc.

(9) The picture that is projected by a lens can be used as a structural link in an advanced "orgone shooter"

(10) Besides the new orgone generator, we also developed DOR generators (see point 8) that can be switched off at will. These DOR generators allowed us to test and quantify the fact that pulsed orgone transforms DOR back into orgone.

Wilhelm Reich showed that orgone energy is a primordial cosmic energy. It is universally present and it can be demonstrated visually, thermically, electroscopically and by means of Geiger-Mueller counters. In the living organism: Chi-energy, Bio-energy, Life Force, or Prana.

Naturally, there is much more to life force, i.e., many more uses, than its recent scientific pioneers ever could have realized. Operating within the narrow constraints of their scientific upbringing, they were unable to see the obvious: namely, uses of life force of which any tai chi master, shaman, magician or priest of more traditional cultures knows and which he applies on a daily basis. These traditional workers of life force had practical experience with Life Force and direct evidence of its effects.

Perhaps these modern day pioneers were too arrogant to look into practices that they labeled "mystical", perhaps they did not want to lose the illusion of being "first". The vicious polemics that some of the life force pioneers had against each other and the habit of ignoring previous achievements in the same field points to this complex of motivations.

Radionics is the transfer of life force at any distance. This is a basic characteristic of life force that quite obviously escaped the scientific minds of its more recent pioneers, but of which traditional life force experts knew for thousands of years! Now we are going to continue by listing the characteristics of life force that we can demonstrate and show you how practically all action at a distance can be explained easily based on these characteristics. From there we will introduce you to technologies of orgone energy. We will continue to show you how you can apply orgone energy in your daily life for your benefit and for the benefit of those around you.

For the person who has read and studied the works of Wilhelm Reich, Franz Anton Mesmer, Karl von Reichenbach, and others who had pioneered the scientific approach to life force, the demonstration of an orgone energy transfer at any distance via structural links and the theories about action at a distance that follow may be a bit of a surprise, to say the least. In fact, some persons may be inclined to reject these theories a priori even after performing the test. On the other hand, many of the methods to which we introduce you on this site are nothing new. In fact, it's something that humans knew for thousands of years. For them these methods were not as part of a "science", but part of their work, part of their daily experience, and direct evidence for which they did not need elaborate scientific theories. They may have interpreted these phenomena non-scientifically, based on their religious creeds. Nevertheless, even with these sometimes inadequate explanations they were well capable of making extensive and very effective use of life force technologies!

Now Let's Explore A Few Basics Concerning Life Force ... (Chi energy, prana, orgone)

Based on the previous experiment and the research of scientists like Wilhelm Reich, Franz Anton Mesmer, Karl von Reichenbach and others, we know of orgone energy that

(1) it flows freely without significant loss of energy between identical structures, no matter how distant these structures are,

(2) it follows the principle of negative entropy, i.e., from the weaker potential to the stronger one until the stronger potential is saturated, and

(3) it pulsates.

From this knowledge, we can derive with ease the common functional principle of nearly all methods, past and present, of

Action At A Distance

Historically speaking, there have been many methods to work at a distance, to influence people, to effect "changes of luck," and to cause desirable solutions to the many challenges an individual (especially a ruler) had to meet. Typically, when referring to such work, humans used many words depending on their culture and religious belief system. Some of the typical words for such action at a distance are: shamanic practice, miracle work, spiritual work, prayer, psychic work, or magick are used.

We also will try to make it very clear that all these methods of work have the same common functional principle, namely that they are action at a distance that employs structural links and life force.

Let's summarize: The three basic factors of any successful action at a distance, including radionics are:

The Trend-Link (representing the planned effect),
The Target-Link (representing the target), and Life Force (chi energy, orgone energy, prana, mana, etc)!

An operation at a distance that neglects any one of these three basic factors is doomed to fail, regardless of intent, traditionalist connection, spiritual training, and what not! That is the reason why some methods do not work, even if the would-be practitioner followed all instructions meticulously.

(11) It was not Wilhelm Reich who built the first functioning orgone accumulators of which we know presently, but Franz Anton Mesmer some 150 years earlier. Mesmer even had attachments to his accumulators of "animal magnetism" (his term for life force, or orgone) that remind us of orgone shooters. In the German and French speaking areas, most psychologists and practically all hypnotists are familiar with Franz Anton Mesmer's name and with his work. The hypnotists see in Franz Anton Mesmer one of their pioneers and therefore study his work!

They have been even more so at the time of Mr. Wilhelm Reich's studies (he studied hypnosis under Freud) and subsequent practice in Vienna.

In 1897 Mr. Korschelt, a scientist from Lwow (Wilhelm Reich's birth place) built an orgone shooter, his "Solar Ether Radiation Apparatus" that he used in the main for healing purposes. Compared to Reich's orgone shooter, his device was a "monster" of over 6 ft length. Notwithstanding its size, this orgone shooter (the one that we built according to Korschelt's plans) had slightly less output than the average Reichian orgone shooters.

With the new Welz Chi Generators, you can now receive a tool of Power, i.e., a generator of life force, that can give you the cutting edge in your path to a happy, meaningful, and fulfilled life in abundance.

Among other things, you can use the new orgone technology of the Welz Chi Generators in conjunction with new methods of NCP (neuro-Cybernetic programming) to help you Get yourself more relaxed and focused, especially when you set your orgone generator to pulse in Alpha or Theta rhythms. These brain wave frequencies have been connected with faster learning and improved intelligence.

Add life energy to your workouts, body building, fitness training, aerobics, sports activities, and weight reduction plans, for more effectiveness. For those who are involved in competitive sports, the equipment from HSCTI can be used as a powerful performance enhancer that defies detection! (see also the Performer 2400)

Work on your awareness, intuition, cognition, ESP, and meditation

Overcome the negative effects of electromagnetic pollution such as in the vicinity of power lines, TV, microwave ovens, and cellular telephones.

Energize water and food. Distilled water that has been energized with orgone tastes like spring water. Help persons who are sensitive to weather changes; or generate the appropriate energies to change your life for the better. If you set a Target-Link next to the Filter representing a trend energy (the Trend-Link), you can use your orgone generator to perform a powerful and fast acting impact at a distance upon another person or yourself, even upon a group of people! [It is recommended that you have the permission of all of the people that you use the device on, so as to not violate their personal space.]

Remember the most important advantage: The Welz Chi Generator works at any distance! Because of direct energy transfer at any distance (see the orgone energy transfer test), there is no need ever to carry this powerful device with you! You can operate your NCP, trend-management, energizing, etc., from the privacy of your home!

Carry a transfer-disk on you (such as the PBT 2000) and the orgone energy of the Welz Chi Generator will transfer to you wherever you are, whether just a few blocks from your home or half around the globe. You will find out more details and uses of this exceptional method in the Instruction Manual that you will receive with your orgone generator or combination device!

Important! Light-Sound devices and other old-type mind machines are not suited for NCP, trend management, or any other advanced method of neurotechnology! In fact, the TEST to feel life force at a distance is tangible proof that, with the introduction of this extraordinary new technology, the use of earphone-goggle type contraptions is a thing of the past – obsolete!

You will also notice that most orgone devices that are on the market today are likewise obsolete! This exciting new orgone technology is certainly more effective, more powerful, and simpler, as compared to the primitive orgone accumulators, orgone shooters, orgone blankets, orgone pillows, etc., that you find on the market today. Above all, it's exciting news for the person who wants to take advantage of the benefits of brain wave neurotechnology (mind machines) in situations where the wearing of goggles and earphones would look from strange to outright ridiculous. Just think of wearing such a contraption when it may be really needed such as on a date or in an important business meeting! Even if you think that you know everything about mind machines or about orgone technology, I suggest that you read the theories concerning action at a distance. The reason being that you will find information that goes far beyond the concepts of the run-off-the-mill light sound device or electric-mini-shock contraptions that you clip on your ear! The Welz Chi Generators are mind machines that supply you also with life force!

The practical harnessing of life force for your overall success is extremely easy! It is the same process that happens when gifted human beings use their innate ("psychic") powers or when they generate life force by some other means. There is a difference, of course: With the new Welz Chi Generator even an untrained person can get the same results now that otherwise only highly trained psychics, shamans, or magicians can get. In fact, the Welz Chi Generator generates life force continuously and even stronger than most magicians and shamans would ever dare to dream of !!! For this reason, an untrained person who uses this extraordinary new technology can now have a decisive edge even over the well-trained practitioner who does not own and operate this technology !!!

All it takes to succeed is the capability to flip a switch and the willingness and open mind to utilize new technology in your aspirations to improve your life in every aspect !!!

In fact, acquiring your Welz Chi Generator is the best investment that anyone can make in a lifetime, as Welz Chi Generators already produce spectacular results, already experienced by scores of proud owners of the Welz Chi Generators !!!

The universal manual that you will receive with your equipment has easy-to-follow, step by step instructions that will lead you from very simple applications to increasingly complex uses of this extraordinary equipment. This is backed by our life time customer service !!!

With simple attachments to the Welz Chi Generator such as the various filter packs and radionics programs, you can now harness life force even further for any purpose you desire. The Welz Chi Generator will then project this modulated life force to any target of your choosing and it will do so continuously !!!

Creating A Spiritually Clean Environment For Using Your Device By Whitney T. Vanwells Ph.D., C.A.S.

You are now the proud owner of a Welz orgone or radionics device. With its use, you will enjoy years of good service. But, this is a science of the ethers. There is much beyond what our eyes and senses know, and when using a radionics or orgone device you are entering into unseen dimensions, and applying very pure life force energy. In order to get the best benefit from your equipment, it is important that you are clear of energies and beings that might block the use of your device. We have done over 10 years worth of healing, and entity removal research, and the following is a finely honed method for clearing your psychic & physical, space so that you can create and apply your radionics sessions:

New Balance Clearing Therapy™ - ENTITY REMOVAL PRAYER:

Many problems are caused by entity contamination. These include: depression, anxiety, fears, addictions, alcoholism, suicide, phobias, relationship difficulties, bad health, rage, hyperactivity, crabbiness, gambling, money problems, blocks on personal growth, and blocks on spiritual development. Entities can be removed. USE THIS HANDOUT DAILY.

SIGNS OF ENTITIES:

Feeling suddenly dizzy, or off balance for no apparent reason; depression, rage, edginess, anger, sadness, anxiety, sleeplessness, a new addiction, weird thoughts, or strange images that are not normal to you, voice change, and personality changes. Multiple Personalities is primarily from entity possession. Chronic health concerns can be caused by entities, and their dysfunctional energies. Over 90% of manic depression is entity related, as well as; outbursts, relationship problems, and addictions. If an entity was an alcoholic while in the physical body, they will still want to "drink" vicariously through a "host" that they attach to.

1. ENTITY REMOVAL PROCEDURES:

Your entities were removed during the Dharma Energy Clearing™. But more are easy to attract. It is as though we live in a fishbowl of unseen beings. If you work with people, go to the restaurant, or go shopping you are "Trolling for Entities." If you feel that you might have entities around you (they can jump from one person to the other), find a quiet place, if possible, and do the following. You do not have to say this out loud for it to work:

Ask inwardly for your own Masters, Guides, and Angels to help you to remove the entities. Say the following, either silently or out loud:

- "On all levels of my existence, clear me and Shield me, with the shield of the Holy Spirit.

- Clear any karma that I might have with these beings, in this life or in past lives. Clear all cause, effect, record, and memory, clear and remove on all levels of my existence all: entities, Things, Its, gargoyles, mini-entities, cellular entities, lost Souls, devils, demons, satanics, whisps, creatures, E.T.'s, witches, witches familiars, warlocks, warlock familiars, sorcerers, imposters, black magicians, or their helpers. IF IT IS THE WILL OF GOD, CLEAR AND REMOVE, WHATEVER IT TAKES."

This will remove regular entities, those that are resistant to leaving, and the very evil classes of entities, or demons. This method works!

2. REMOVING THEIR ENERGIES & THOUGHT FORMS (YOUR MUST COMPLETE 1 & 2):

*You will still have their dysfunctional thought forms, and energies in your consciousness, after the entities are removed. To get clear, you need use both 1 & 2. Say the following: "If it is the will of God, Clear, vent, and remove on all levels of my existence, all: thought forms, dysfunctional energies, hooks, hates, addictions, fears, diseases, anxieties, curses, spells, incantations, hexes, summonings, symbols, and evokings, that they might have left. Clear all: calling cards, black magic, black magic lines, white magic, entity attachment points, entity energies, entity reproduction programs, eggs, cocoons, sperm, placentas, entity slag, entity trails, entity diseases, mini entities, entity halters, and all voo doo. Clear all: European black magic, India black magic, Kahuna, Aztec, Inca, Myan, Egyptian, Druid, Atlantean, Lemurian, Alien, Satanic, and Wicca black magic. Clear: black mirror energies, rebound curses, enhancements, death rays, disease rays, sleep rays, hypnotic rays, psychotronic rays, the evil eye, incantations, and spells; inter-planetary contamination and implants, black magic doorways, psychic contamination lines, opposition and contamination from all sources, black magic control lines, and control seeds. Leave only love energy, love thought forms, and love lines. Balance the ego and consciousness to accept these new changes, shield this work with the Holy Spirit, and Seal it with the Holy Spirit. Bless us in the Name Of God."

Use the short form below, after you use the above 2 methods, for ONE FULL WEEK.

"IF IT IS GOD'S WILL, CLEAR AND REMOVE, WHATEVER IT TAKES AND ALL OF THEIR PSYCHIC STUFF."

Clear yourself and your loved ones, daily. Updated 1/23/03.

To Get The Best Service From Your Device... Learn To Use A Pendulum To Set Rates

The more that you use the device, the more your intuitive skills will sharpen. It is always good to learn to use a pendulum. A pendulum is a telephone that connects you to Spirit, to your Guides, and to your own subconscious mind. It is a wonderful free service that you can connect to, and use for life, to help all areas of your life. If you could dowse for an answer, and receive 100% correct response, wouldn't you do it? Most people do not understand the use the pendulum, and that it is really a spiritual tool, that has been around for thousands of years. You can use a pendulum, to better use your radionics or orgone equipment. You can use it to test if you have selected the right rates and programs on your device, or in your radionics software, if you have it.

Here are easy to use instructions on how to use your pendulum. We recommend the Super Isis pendulum, from <http://www.diviningmind.com/>

Programming Your Subconscious To Use A Pendulum

GETTING STARTED WITH THE PENDULUM:

Put your elbow on the table. If you are right handed, use your right hand to dowse with the pendulum: There is a little flat bead on the black string of the pendulum. Shorten it to about 2 to 3 inches from the pendulum, as this is where you will hold the string. Hold it with thumb, index, and middle fingers, or what feels comfortable for you. The shorter the string, the faster the pendulum moves. Say: "Clear me. Shield me. I invite the Holy Spirit, and my High Self Committee of Guides & Angels, to talk to be present and to talk to me through my pendulum."

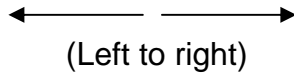

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A "YES" SIGNAL:

Put your elbow on the table, and sit comfortably. Swing the pendulum away from your body, and back again, (forward & back) while doing that say this: "This is my Yes. People nod their heads yes, and this is my Yes.

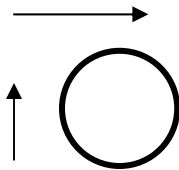

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A "NO" SIGNAL:

Next, swing the pendulum gently, from left to right side, and say this: "This is my No. People shake their heads No, and this is my No.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A "CLEARING" SIGNAL:

Start by swinging the pendulum in a clock-wise circle, and say the following:

"This is my Clearing Signal. My pendulum goes in a circle when my High Self Committee is clearing something, like a block, program, or negative energy away." Your High Self Committee, your angels and guides will talk to you through the pendulum. In this way, They can help you more, and give you accurate universal information. This is a tool that you will have for life. If you are not sure, if a vitamin is good for you for example, hold the vitamins in your non-dominant hand, and dowse over it. Ask: "Is this good for me?" They will tell you Yes, or No. When you ask a question, give the pendulum a twist, in a circle, clockwise, and that will get it started.

Programming Your Subconscious To Use A Pendulum – Percentages, Dictionary, Week Days, Testing Accuracy

With this method, you will get free information from your High Self Committee, your own Guides and Angels. You can also use numbered charts, so that you can ask percentage type questions. Like this:

PERCENTAGE QUESTIONS:

"What percentage of good will this new job give me, if I take it?" Then, swing your pendulum in a circle to get it started. They will search around for the right percentage on the numbered chart. For example, if the pendulum swings to 7, that means 70% benefit. Then, you ask if 70% (for example) is right. They will say, Yes or No.

DAYS OF THE WEEK:

You can also ask days of the week using the numbers on the chart:

- 1 - Monday
- 2 - Tuesday
- 3 - Wednesday
- 4 - Thursday
- 5 - Friday
- 6 - Saturday
- 7 - Sunday

DICTIONARY WORDS:

Ask what page the word is on that your High Self Committee wants to tell you. They will say, for example, page 58. Then you go to page 58 in the dictionary, and ask, if it is the Right or Left column on page 58. Give the pendulum, a circular twist, and it will go Yes, or No. They will say, for example, that it is the left column on page 58. Then put your pendulum in No mode (left to right side).....Then, with your free hand, you go down the list with your index finger, until you get a Yes, on your pendulum. So, as you go down the list, you want to start with the pendulum swinging - No. When you hit the right word, it will go Yes. Ask if this is the right word to confirm.

CLEARING AWAY DISCARNATES (ENTITIES):

Clear and Shield. Ask if you have discarnates (Souls that have died, and left their bodies). If you get a Yes, say: "Clear, and remove. Take them to their proper place, there is no Sin. God loves them." If the discarnate is still present, you have a nasty one. Say this then: "Shackle, throw them into the Holy Spirit, clear, and remove. Take them to their proper place, there is no Sin, God loves them." No discarnate, can resist the shackle method. It is very important to stay clear of discarnates (entities, or Souls). Check to make sure that you are clear each day.

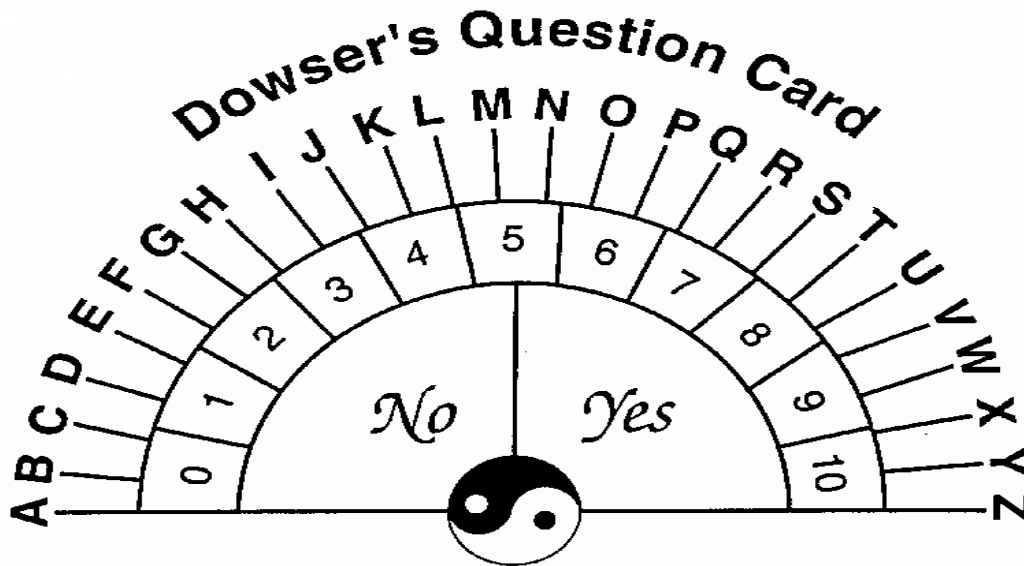

YOUR OWN ACCURACY TEST:

Use a numbered chart, and ask how accurate you are. Say: "How accurate am I?" It should say 100%. If it does not, ask them to clear and shield you again. Do this until you get a 100% answer.

It might take some time to learn the pendulum, so practice a little each day. The Masters say that all High Souls have used a pendulum before. This is not surprising as pendulums have been around for thousands of years, and some where even found in Egyptian tombs, from over 6,000 years ago. The Pendulum is a wonderful tool, and will help you through out your life. It is free, easy to use, and you can test your accuracy. Anyone can use it. All you have to do is practice and it will surely bring results. The best pendulum on the Net, the 'Super Isis' model, - was redesigned by my own Masters. You can purchase it at: <http://www.diviningmind.com/>

A Basic Number/Alphabet Chart For Pendulum Use:

Use this chart to check for accuracy (10 means can mean, 10 Or 100% - if you are doing percentages) To ask if you have the correct rate on your radionics device. Or to get further information from your own Guides & Masters. You can use the numbers above, for page numbers to your dictionary to get full sentences from Them.

About Distant Healing

THE TEST IN INDIA:

This phenomenon was proven by Dr. Sarkar, of Calcutta India, about twenty years ago. He was a practitioner of Color and Gem therapy, and also, an expert dowser and healer. His healing abilities were tested, As an experiment, Dr. Sarkar, while in Calcutta, used a photograph of a patient located in New York, and radiated red color healing light to the patient. At this same time, two independent doctors observed the patient through a prism, in New York. During the fifteen day experiment, the observing doctors recorded significant increase in the red color energy of the patient, day by day. In this way, Dr. Sarkar had his distant healing abilities confirmed, as the health of his patient increased. Every disease or disorder has its Root Cause in the energy force field of the person. Clearing blocks to healing, and changing the frequency of the disharmonious organ, or organ systems in the energy force field of the patient gradually produces positive changes in the organ health, and behavior.

Understanding Distant Clearing & Radionics

The Transmission of healing energies to a person located at a distance from the healer, or the healing instrument, is called Tele-therapy, Distant Healing, or Radionics. This healing method has been in existence for many thousands of years. In the U.S. radionics equipment for healing for others, is banned.

RADIESTHESIA & RADIONICS:

A Swiss priest, the Abbe Mermet, used pendulum dowsing for medical diagnosis in the 1920's and introduced the term 'radiesthesia' meaning sensitivity to radiation. All forms of matter exude radiation (vibrations) and Radionics is a way to apply distant healing based on the diagnosis provided by the initial Radiesthesia. The practitioner, by the means of using special instruments, constructs a health 'picture' of the patient and identifies areas of imbalance. Before this the patient completes a case history form, or a list of their childhood traumas, and present concerns. In some cases a picture of the recipient, aids the practitioner in his/her work of coaxing the body and mind to draw on universal healing properties.

ON EINSTEIN:

This Distant Healing phenomenon, was propounded by Einstein, although it has existed for many thousands of years before his time. Einstein made an interesting discovery. His theory on vibratory resonance, was this. If two electrons of a single atom are separated, and one of these electrons is placed on the moon (for example) and the other on Earth, - that by altering the frequency of the electron on Earth, the frequency of the electron on the moon would also change simultaneously, and instantaneously. This is how healing energy is applied in Distant Healing.

THE TEST IN INDIA:

This phenomenon was proven by Dr. Sarkar, of Calcutta India, about twenty years ago. He was a practitioner of Color and Gem therapy, and also, an expert dowser and healer. His healing abilities were tested, As an experiment, Dr. Sarkar, while in Calcutta, used a photograph of a patient located in New York, and radiated red color healing light to the patient.

At this same time, two independent doctors observed the patient through a prism, in New York. During the fifteen day experiment, the observing doctors recorded significant increase in the red color energy of the patient, day by day. In this way, Dr. Sarkar had his distant healing abilities confirmed, as the health of his patient increased. Every disease or disorder has its Root Cause in the energy force field of the person.

Clearing blocks to healing, and changing the frequency of the disharmonious organ, or organ systems in the energy force field of the patient gradually produces positive changes in the organ health, and behavior.

NEW BALANCE CLEARING THERAPY™ DISTANT HEALING:

During the Clearing Sessions at FusionMasters™ Ltd., the Masters and I, apply Healing and Clearing energies, through a very special form of Distant Healing, called NEW BALANCE CLEARING THERAPY™. With this new Therapy, the subconscious mind of the recipient, and their physical body, are cleared of blocks, and programs that are damaging their health, relationships, and prosperity. We also apply various healing energies, through Distant Healing. NEW BALANCE CLEARING THERAPY™ is at the forefront of the new schools of alternate therapy, that are now available. Many of the healing energies used during our sessions are unique to us, and the method, is also a highly advanced form of Distant Healing, based on Einstein's theories of vibratory resonance. We also use the Welz radionics equipment to 'Imprint' new positive thoughts and energies into the consciousness of our clients who request a session.

We DO NOT make any healing claims to these devices, however.

*Note: When you use your new radionics equipment, be sure to drink extra water during the days that you use it.

Sample Decrees & Symbols Used With For Prosperity $

Below are a few of decrees, that are not in the RAD 2400 CD Software, but that can be used with this program. You can copy and Past them into your software program, or print the manual and type them into your new RI 2400 software.

Decree & Prosperity

I have money, wealth, opulence, supply, and abundance of all material things. I AM wealthy and prosperous with an abundance of money right now.

God Blesses me with an abundance of money, and prosperity. I am worthy to receive, and I receive large amounts of money now. Money is Spirit, and I am Blessed with a great abundance of money. I have more money, than I will ever spend. My bank accounts are full of money, and I have much wealth, real estate, a prosperous business, and investments. Money is a gift from God.

DECREE ABUNDANCE - DIVINE FLOW

I AM the Universe, re-creating myself
I AM the Universe flowing
To myself, through myself, from myself,
Creating all I see.
I am the Divine Flow of All That Is.
Abundant is my motion.
I AM the Universe, re-creating myself
To flow abundance, money, wealth, and love.

File Name: !Decree of manifesting
By the Grace of God, I manifest at will
I determine my life, and the material things in it
I create great wealth, success, and material goods at will and
I have the power of creation at my finger tips.
I can manifest by my thoughts, feelings, and desires.
I am loved and respected.
I have control of my life now, I am financially secure, and I am happy.
I can create diamonds, gold, inventions, property, and jewels from the ethers. I draw great wealth to me now.

Decree on enjoying work, making money

I like working. It is O.K. to work. I do not have to give up my identity by working. Working is good for my Spirit. I do not need to be supported by others. I am an adult, and I can support myself. I like making money.

I am prosperous, and wealthy now. I have great amounts of money. I enjoy my work, and I enjoy being paid for the work that I do. I exceed my own goals. My income now exceeds expenses, and debts. Money is Spirit, and there is always more money that comes to me. I invest my wealth wisely, with clear conscious awareness and the highest golden integrity.

I am in a constant state of gratitude, and joy, and I receive money graciously. I am worthy to receive. I am successful. I enjoy making more money. I am good at making money. I like helping my spouse, and making more money. Money and success comes to me easily.

I know that money is a gift from God. I appreciate all wealth that comes to me now.

I manifest abundance, money, wealth, and riches from my own higher state of consciousness. I give to those around me, and my spouse. I am not stingy with my money.

What is a Trend Link:

Trend links represent the desire effect, and are devices, symbols, radionic settings, symbolic objects, or other representation, such as oils. They have one main thing in common; they establish a symbolic connection with a desired effect, and can create a solution to a problem. It is very important that when you create a trend link for change, that your intent is strong. It is your intent, and connection with the divine, that creates new and positive change. Do not let your mind wonder, when you program your session. And, when you are done, release it to Spirit, knowing that the best outcome will happen. An example of a trend link, is the white light symbol above. If this is placed in your software session, and a copy is placed on your device, or taken with you in your pocket, this becomes a link to the program that you have created.

What is a Target Link:

The Target Link, is often called the psychic link, and it is an object, symbol, radionics setting, a photo of the receiver, or a lock of hair of the receiver. To help the body to receive life force, and if there are health issues, a single drop of blood, placed on a 1 inch square piece of paper, placed in a plastic bag, helps to link to the physical body. The Target Link creates a direct flow of life force energy to the Target that it represents. The small brown orgonite discs also serve as a link, if you carry them in your pocket. Do not lose the brown discs if you have ordered a device that has them. They are a crucial part of your equipment, and give you the use of the equipment, while away from home. Buy a small cloth bag from a novelty store to put them in.

Why Use Life Force:

Change cannot be created in the mind without a carrier force, or energy. The mind must have a way to receive the new information, and the life force energy in the Welz devices, suits this purpose. In traditional spiritual healing the Force used is Divine energy. The life force, that is provided through the Radionics and Orgone devices, is a lower form of this same energy. The symbols in the software, and that were e-mailed to you, act as connectors to this life force energy.

The Symbol Packs In The RA 2400 CD Software:

ABRAMELIN:

The symbols in this directory are all derived from a grimoire called "The Sacred Magic of Abramelin The Mage". These symbols are all letters arranged in squares. You will find a description of the symbols in the Abramelin grimoire. Below is a list of the most important ones:

1.1 01 Past Future

This directory contains symbols that can help you to find out about things past and future, as long as they are not directly opposed to God's will:

- 01 To know all things as past and future in general
- 02 To know things belonging to the future
- 03 To know things of the future
- 04 To know about things that will happen in war
- 05 To find out about things past and forgotten
- 06 To find out about tribulations to come
- 07 To know about propitious things to come
- 08 To know about the past of enemies
- 09 To know the signs of tempest
- 10 To find out the secrets of war
- 11 To distinguish real from false

1.2 02 Familiar Spirit Shape

To retain free and bound spirits in any desired shape. This has to do with the astral form that you may give a thought form that you create and how it will appear astrally to others. Not recommended for beginners on the path with a new radionics device.

- 01 Form of a lion
- 02 Page
- 03 Flower
- 04 Horseman
- 05 Eagle

CONCLUSION:

The ability to change the consciousness at a distance has been around for thousands of years. You are now at a point, where you can change yourself for the better, through your own choices, and using your own affirmations, symbols, and desires.

With this new Radionics equipment, you are given the keys to creating new and positive changes in your life. This safe, tested, equipment that was designed by physicist Karl Welz, offers you something beyond known reality. You now own a tool for creating new changes in your life, that you did not have before.

The field of radionics, is a new area of research, and you will find new ways to use your device that suite your needs. All of what has been given to you here has been based on the research of others. Yet, this is a wide open field, with endless possibilities. You will find ways to apply these methods to your own needs. You might find new pictures, or symbols, and create new decrees of your own. We whole heartedly encourage you to do so.

If you have any questions regarding your device, or need information on dowsing, radionics, the equipment, or your software, contact Whitney T. Vanwells below:
